

Human Understanding™ Program

INSTITUTES

NRC Health's Institutes capabilities provide boards and organization leaders with insights to guide strategy and governance, enabling you to build stronger organizations and healthier communities. Gain access to valuable research, trend analysis, and idea-sharing resources to guide your health system with a focus on Human Understanding and health equity.

The Governance Institute:

Provides board-specific education and tools, networking opportunities, and insights to improve strategic efficiency. Help your board innovate and accelerate its future with access to membership events that offer interactive sessions and expert speakers.

To learn more, visit:
governanceinstitute.com

Human Understanding Institute:

Turn aspiration into action by prioritizing what matters to patients, families, and care teams in the real world. Gain expertise, experience, and evidence to generate insights that have strategic relevance to health systems and health plans, with a particular focus on Human Understanding and health equity. Expand your knowledge and share ideas with access to in-person and virtual learning collaboratives.