Lisa Lennon Pascoe, FACHE

Vice President, Governance & System Effectiveness, Sparrow Health System

---

Lisa Pascoe has been in the field of healthcare management for almost 30 years in a variety of settings including primary care hospitals, tertiary hospitals, health system corporate offices, and health maintenance organizations. She is currently the Vice President, Governance and System Effectiveness as well as Secretary, Board of Directors for Sparrow Health System. Her responsibilities in this position include corporate recordkeeping, board portal administration, governance recruitment, orientation/training, continuing education, evaluation, service recognition, and meeting support in addition to support for the president and CEO of Sparrow Health System in all areas of governance. Her current work also includes executive project management, especially around increasing the efficiencies and effectiveness of functioning as a health system. In addition to her governance role with Sparrow, Lisa has been a member of The Governance Institute's Governance Support Editorial Board, which provides expertise to the Research and Publications department of The Governance Institute, since 2012. Immediately prior to this position she was a Vice President with St. Lawrence Hospital and Healthcare Services (a division of Trinity Health). She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in engineering arts (now known as applied engineering) from Michigan State University and two Master's degrees in both health administration and business administration from the University of Michigan's School of Public Health and Ross School of Business.
