Maulik S. Joshi, Dr.P.H.

President & CEO, Meritus Health

Maulik Joshi serves as the President and CEO for Meritus Health. With over 3,000 employees and 500 medical staff members, Meritus Health includes Meritus Medical Center, a 300-bed regional hospital; Meritus Medical Group, an enterprise of 100 providers; and Meritus Home Health. Meritus Health is also a 25% owner of Maryland Physicians Care, a 215,000 Medicaid member health plan. The mission of Meritus Health is to improve the health status of our region.

Prior to Meritus Health, Dr. Joshi was the Executive Vice President of Integrated Care Delivery and Chief Operating Officer for the Anne Arundel Health System. Anne Arundel Health System is a regional health system headquartered in Annapolis, MD and serves an area of more than 1.2 million people. Previously, Dr. Joshi served as the Associate Executive Vice President at the American Hospital Association and President of the Health Research & Educational Trust. He has also served as Senior Advisor at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, President and CEO of the Delmarva Foundation, Vice President at the Institute for Healthcare Improvement, Senior Director of Quality for the University of Pennsylvania Health System, and Executive Vice President for The HMO Group.

Dr. Joshi has a Doctor of Public Health, a Master's in health services administration from the University of Michigan, and a Bachelor of Science in mathematics from Lafayette College. He was Editor-in-Chief for the Journal for Healthcare Quality. He also co-edited The Healthcare Quality Book: Vision, Strategy and Tools (fourth edition, with over 32,000 copies sold), and coauthored Healthcare Transformation: A Guide for the Hospital Board Member and Leading Healthcare Transformation: A Primer for Clinical Leaders. Dr. Joshi is adjunct faculty at the University of Michigan School of Public Health in the Department of Health Management and Policy. Dr. Joshi has served on numerous not-for-profit boards within and outside of healthcare.