Fletcher Brown

Partner
Waller Law

Fletcher provides counsel to hospitals, health systems, physician practices, and other providers on regulatory issues ranging from contract negotiations to Stark and anti-kickback compliance. He advises on policies and procedures, physician contracting, board governance, and patient privacy issues. Fletcher has been recognized for precedent-setting work with Texas Medicaid 1115 Waiver, helping more than 45 healthcare providers receive additional funding for risk-based managed care statewide. He has consistently been recognized by Chambers USA as a leader in Texas health law, has been named a “Super Lawyer” in the Health Law Field by Texas Monthly and Law & Politics magazine for the past decade.
