Amy Bulpitt, J.D., M.B.A., accepted an invitation to serve as Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer for Hospital Sisters Health System (HSHS) and began her service in November 2016. She oversees the legal, risk management, self-insured captive, advocacy, governance, and compliance teams. Amy previously served as HSHS associate general counsel and vice president of legal affairs for the HSHS Central Illinois Division. She joined the HSHS family in 2010 after working at Hughes and Tenney, LLC where she specialized in healthcare law, including the defense of physicians in malpractice claims. She graduated from Illinois Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in history. She went on to earn her Juris Doctorate and Health Law Certificate from the Health Law Program at St. Louis University School of Law and her executive M.B.A. from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri.
